SHERATON GRAND
London Park Lane

Sekou Conde

HEAD CHEF, MERCANTE AT THE SHERATON GRAND PARK LANE

Chef Sekou began his culinary journey in 2010 in family-run restaurants in Venice, where he developed a deep appreciation for traditional Italian cuisine. Inspired by the rich flavours of Venetian home cooking, he honed his skills preparing meals for his siblings and experimenting with classic recipes.

As his career developed, Sekou honed his culinary expertise across various regions of Italy, deepening his appreciation for authentic Italian gastronomy and regional specialities. He later expanded his repertoire by exploring Oriental flavours leading sushi and Japanese culinary operations in Rome, before launching his own sushi concept at the prestigious JW Marriott Resort in Venice.

In 2019, Sekou relocated to London to broaden his culinary horizons. He joined the team at the Sheraton Grand Park Lane, where his talent and leadership saw him rise to the role of Head Chef at Mercante. Today, he brings the warmth of homemade Venetian flavours to the vibrant London dining scene.

At Mercante, Sekou has the freedom to express his creativity, crafting dishes by hand with purpose and passion. He is an integral part of the Sheraton culinary family, leading with heart and sharing memorable experiences from curating bespoke menus for high-profile weddings and charity events, to overseeing live culinary stations.

