

WELCOME TO THE W BRISBANE LISTENING LOUNGE.

A lounge room for those who know the night's most memorable moments often happen after everything else ends, shared with a select few, in a space you make your own.

At your fingertips you will find a collection of 100 vinyl records, hand-selected by the W's Music Curator, for you to spin at will. Slow down, lean in, and let the music shift you from one state the next. This is a bespoke listening experience for a private community to connect, converse and create.

THE COLLECTION

The Listening Lounge vinyl collection brings together a thoughtfully assembled mix of classic and contemporary records, elevating the space through sound. Curated in collaboration with Flo Records, it offers a sophisticated cross-genre journey grounded in deep musical knowledge, authenticity, and musical integrity.

OUR MUSIC CURATOR

Adam Swain is the official Music Curator at W Brisbane, shaping the hotel's sonic identity and delivering a refined, music-led guest experience. With a 30-year career as a DJ and vinyl collector, he brings a deep connection to music culture, creating a seamless flow of sound from day into evening.

HOW TO SPIN

Please speak to your Experience Host to assist with swapping sound. This equipment is top-shelf and we do require supervision if you wish spin yourself.

SELECT RECORD

Choose a vinyl record.
Remove from the sleeve carefully.

HANDLING

Hold with two hands.
Handle by the outer edge only.
Avoid touching grooves.

PLACING THE RECORD

Place onto the W slip mat/platter.
Ensure it is seated on the spindle.

PREPARE THE TONEARM

Release from the tonearm.
Lift the cue lever.

POSITIONING

Guide the tonearm over the start of the record.

START PLAYBACK

Lower the cue lever slowly to place the stylus onto the record.
Press start on the turntable (platter spins).
Talent to be engaged to increase volume on the mixer as required.

FINISHING

Raise the cue lever.
Return the tonearm to the rest and secure.

*We trust you... mostly,
if you're not sure about something,
give your host a nudge and they'll sort you out x*
